Transportation Information

The reunion will be held in Richard J. Daley Library on the UIC campus. See map attached.

- Mass transit directions and fares
- Accessibility Information
- Driving directions and parking
- Bicycle directions and parking

Mass transit directions

UIC's location allows easy access to campus via public transportation. Both CTA buses (lines 8, 60 and 12) and the CTA trains (the "L") run through and around campus on Saturdays. (see routes as a layer on our campus map). The closest "L" stop to the Daley Library is on the Blue Line train (UIC-Halsted stop) and the Pink Line train with a longer walk (Polk stop). Trains and buses connect the campus with downtown, O'Hare International and Midway Airports, northwest and west side neighborhoods of Chicago, and the western suburbs of Oak Park, Forest Park and Cicero.

One-way Fares: Bus - $2.25 Train - $2.50 (plus $5 more for O'Hare Airport)

Accessibility Information

The Richard J. Daley Library front entrance is accessible by wheelchair users. The Blue Line UIC Halsted stop is accessible as well. The closest accessible visitor parking is located in Lot 4 (on Halsted Street). See map below.

Accessibility and Campus Map

Car Parking

Closest visitor parking can be found on Halsted St in Lot 4 or the HLSP lot. See map above for these and additional locations. Additional information can be found here for cash lots available on campus.

For all day Saturday, parking will cost $9. Visit the Parking fees page for information on parking rates.

Driving directions for east & south side of campus

| Starting point | Directions  |
|----------------|---|
| From the North | Take the Kennedy Expressway (I-90/94) to the Eisenhower Expressway (I-290) westbound and keep to the right; take Ashland Ave exit from the Eisenhower Expressway; then take Ashland Ave south (left) one block to Harrison St; turn right to get to the campus. |
| From the West  | Take the (I-290) Eisenhower Expressway to the Ashland Avenue exit; then go south to Harrison Street and east to the campus.   |
| From the East  | Take Harrison Street or Roosevelt Road; if you take Roosevelt Road, go west to Halsted Street.  |
